Settlers Who Constantly Try to Take Advantage of Immigrants' Ignorance to Secure Claims—A Few Rather Picturesque Characters Will Start in the Race from the Corners—A Tribune Man Tells How They Were Driven Back by Troops.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 21.—[Special.]—The interest in the Cherokee country has now centered almost entirely here and along the border. A party of the boomers started across the line this morning, and were encamped with about fifty wagons three miles south of the line. Wagons were continually arriving from the north, and before noon this morning there would have crossed the line at least 50 wagons that are now ready to proceed. Last night a Deputy United States Marshal went to the line and summoned to come to Arkansas City. This afternoon Deputy U. S. Clerk Conway was sent to require them, if they would not go peaceably, to be brought here. Many of the boomers have gone back, but the trouble has not yet set in in earnest. All United States law enforcement for the remainder of persons here will endeavor to prevent violence and will simply act as peace officers. The land office at Wichita will not open until the 25th, and most of the boomers do not intend to wait that long. This afternoon Troop D, 9th Cavalry, was sent to require them, if they would not go peaceably, to leave the Indian country. Many of the boomers, however, look to the trouble and are not at all concerned

GEN. HARRISON PREACHES A GOOD SERMON TO THE CONVENTION.

Suggestions Which the Anniversary of the Patriot's Birthday Put Forth—Tennessee Couple Would Substitute April 30 for the Glorious Fourth—Candidates and Contests in Eight Counties Engage Their Interest at the Installation of the Grand Lodge.

The members of the approaching Constitutional Convention are the delegates of the Iron State Democracy cannot "get strong" at the Iron Mountain Church.

"Everything," he said, "in the way of a great government, in the best accepted Washington sense, is the result of the work of men who were willing to sacrifice their own interests for the benefit of the whole people. Washington was the head of that fighting army of the country, to which we owe the fact of having it. We are not the people of the Colonies, but are a nation of free men, and we owe the fact of our existence as a nation to the patriotism of the men who fought for it
